Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Everything You Need to Start and Run a Successful Business At Any Level If You Are Not Sure Where To Start, This is The Place Owning and operating a business is a lot like owning a boat or ship. You can choose whatever suits you, from a little sailing boat (freelancer) up to a huge ocean liner (large corporation). Or you can start small and work your way up. No matter what your skills or resources, there is a place for you if the fire of an Entrepreneur burns in you. This course will show you how to fulfill your dreams of being in your own business and experiencing the joy of being your own boss. Weary of doing things the way someone else wants them done, when you know that you could do them far better? The God Kind of Business will show you what options are available to you and how to do everything better. At last you can be in control of a business that encourages people to realize their full potential. You will learn how to maximize the potential in those who work with you, and enjoy the freedom to rub shoulders with people that you love. Instead of waiting for promotion or being restricted by the structures of someone else s business, you can take up the challenge to produce a business that breaks new ground and allows you to fulfill your financial dreams. There is little more exciting than knowing you have the potential to build everything that you have ever dreamed of. Content Details A. Seven Business Boats Find out how to choose a business niche, product range and place to...
