Reviews

This book may be worth purchasing. It typically fails to expense excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Harvard Advocate, Vol. 46 We must encourage our team with support financial, physical and moral. We must subscribe, practice and encourage with a hearty enthusiasm such as we owe our college. We must seize the first opportunity, and that is foot-ball. Let us strain every nerve to win the championship which has been a stranger to us ever since 77. We have a capable captain, and good material. Why should the other elements of success be lacking? They need not, and the problem resolves itself into this, if they are present we win, if they are lacking we lose. Another opportunity now open to us is a judicious use of the suffrage permitted us as members of the different athletic associations in college. It is our duty as members of these associations to attend the business meetings and help to elect the most capable officers irrespective of personal feelings or society applications. We have failed miserably in this duty during these last years. The Athletic Association with its large membership seldom induces more than two score men to struggle into Holden Chapel and hold up their hands at intervals, and the candidate is elected who has the most friends willing to trouble themselves enough to come and vote. Can we not rouse ourselves to reform or must we wait till matters become still worse? We have suffered defeat so long, that we have forgotten how to celebrate. The lower classes have never even learned the art. The only class now in college (we hope 90 will not take offence at this) who has seen or shared in a real celebration is 89 and the...
