It is hoped that the great responsibility resting upon these officers will impress them with the necessity of a thorough understanding of the laws by which they are governed. As the Tax Collector s power to enforce the payment of taxes, by sale of the tax debtors property, does not arise until all the formalities of the law have been strictly complied with, care and diligence should be exercised in the full and correct description of property on the tax rolls, and in all subsequent proceedings of notice, advertisement and sale. Upon the intelligent and conscientious performance of the duties of the...
