But there is, on the other hand, perhaps, no country where there is more building or more musicianing, such as they are, at the present moment. And as a perfect taste in the arts is no more to be expected in a young nation, mainly occupied with the practical wants of life, than a knowledge of geometry is in an infant school, we are content with the large promise that we find in the present, and confidently look forward for fulfilment to the future. In almost every other country, a few landlords own the land, which a great many tenants live upon and cultivate. Hence the general interest in building...
