The Association met at Youngs Hotel, Nov. 19, 1891. The officers elected for 1891-1892, were: --Augustus Russ, President. Micah Dyer, Jr. , Vice-President. William C. Lawrence, Secy and Treas. Warren Richardson, Historian. Directors: --John F. Newton, Curtis Guild, Benjamin B. Converse, George O. Carpenter, Charles H. Allen, Henry B. Metcalf, Levi L. Willcutt, Thomas F. Temple, Bernard Jenney. The twelfth annual dinner was attended by about 180 members, being the largest number that had ever gathered on a similar occasion. The assembly was called to order by President Baldwin, and the divine blessing was invoked by Mr. William Parkman. At the conclusion of the feast the President called upon the company to rise and sing the first verse of the Reunion Song printed upon the menu, Live for one hour our youth again! The singing was followed by the Presidents address, the substance of which is here given: -- Members of the Boston Old School Boys Association: --My first words this evening shall be those of heartfelt congratulations and of good cheer to this large and happy band of Old School Boys--with our most cordial welcome to those friends who have honored us with their presence as invited guests. The first meeting of this Association was held in this building Nov. 16, 1880, eleven years ago. I am sure you will all agree with me that the idea of organizing the Old School Boys Association of Boston was a beautiful thought--a thought which took...
