The Pope and I: The Friendship Between a Polish Jew and John Paul II and How it Changed Jewish-Christian Relations

By Jerzy Kluger, Gianfranco Di Simone

Orbis Books (USA). Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Pope and I: The Friendship Between a Polish Jew and John Paul II and How it Changed Jewish-Christian Relations, Jerzy Kluger, Gianfranco Di Simone, This book describes the surprising, lifelong relationship between Pope John Paul II and his Jewish friend, Jerzy Kluger. Their friendship played a role in shaping Karol Wojtyla's early views toward the Jewish people, and his later efforts, as pope, to overcome the legacy of anti-Semitism. Though their story has been previously recounted, here for the first time Jerzy Kluger offers his own account of their relationship over many years. The story begins with their friendship in grade school in Poland, Kluger's extraordinary survival of the war, followed by his reunion with Archbishop Wojtyla in Rome during Vatican II. After his friend's election as Pope John Paul II, their relationship unfolds against extraordinary advances in Jewish-Christian relations. Kluger tells a fascinating tale, highlighting the surprising confluences of history, politics, and religion sealed by friendship and mutual respect.
