Brand New Book  Print on Demand .More and more people are rejecting the trappings of organized religion and are practicing their faith unaffiliated with any religious sect. Sometimes called the Nones, Time Magazine reports these individuals are the fastest growing religious group in the United States. Partly because of this trend, Protestant denominations are in a downward spiral. They have lost one third of their congregations over the past decades and there are no signs that this decline will be reversed anytime soon. The author seeks to answer the question: Why are so many people disenchanted with denominational Christianity? He examines those factors that he believes, based on his personal experiences, has cost Christian churches credibility which, in turn, has been translated into a loss of confidence in their teachings and their practice of Christianity. Mr. Miller is uniquely qualified to make such observations. He spent a lifetime of service in one of the world's largest Pentecostal denominations - serving as teacher of the Adult Sunday School class, Trustee and then Deacon - before experiencing a crisis of faith and dropping out of church altogether for over twenty years. Mr. Miller identifies with the Nones because he was one himself for two decades. The author, who returned to his faith a year ago, challenges many doctrines of Christian churches as unjust, out of date or simply inaccurate interpretations of the Bible. In support of his case, he takes the reader on a tour of early Christianity and the beliefs of those giants of the faith - Augustine, Aquinas, Ambrose, Tertullian, Origen and others - who formed most of Christianity's doctrines and teachings and either assembled the New Testament or exerted great influence...
