Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Among those that will utilize their abilities to gain power, there are a select few who strive to protect the ones they love and stop the abuse of abilities. Tessa Warren, an orphan and victim of the misuse of abilities, sought nothing more than to put these abusers down. When a dormant organization rises again, she will turn her attention to the people who are responsible for the death of her first love. In the midst of a love triangle, both past and present, can she focus enough to protect the daughter of a friend from the same organization that killed her family? Or will she be thwarted by the haunting memories of her past and her desire for normalcy?.
