Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Visionary Biography and Communications From God, From 1824 to 1863 In as much as many wonderful things have been shown to me by visions from God, and a good many of them have come to pass, I take this opportunity to write a memorandum. In the year of 1824, in North Garden, Albemarle County, Virginia, a man who was cradling wheat where I labored, striking a stalk with his cradle, wounded himself in the leg; after stopping the blood and dressing the wound he continued to work until night. At supper time the blood again commenced to flow from the wound, and from the loss of blood and fatigue he fainted. I coming in at tie time and seeing him lying on the floor, was greatly frightened, and as I could not bear the sight, I immediately left and seated myself on the fence, about two hundred yards from the house, under a cherry tree, in the light of the moon. The foregoing accident had thrown me into a deep reflection about the uncertainty of life, and I immediately came to the conclusion that I was not safe in any condition of life. There was a certainty that I was obliged to die, and there was no knowing when it would take place, and I imagined I could almost see the spot where I was to be buried. While I was in this condition, some one spoke to me, and said: You will not be buried in this country. I immediately asked where, then? It said: You will have to go away to the West, to a place where there are no religious people,...
