Book View Cafe, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .  New York Times bestseller  Exceptionally funny and entertaining book - Romonko Animals behaving badly, other people s misfortunes and the most bizarre true crime story ever. French Fried is the unfortunately true account of Chris Dolley s first eight months in France and has been described as A Year in Provence with Miss Marple and Gerald Durrell. Just when Chris and Shelagh think nothing more could possibly go wrong, they discover that Chris s identity has been stolen and their life savings - all the money from their house sale in England that was going to finance their new life in France - had disappeared. A bank account had been opened in Chris s name in Spain to take the proceeds. Then they re abandoned by the police forces of four countries who all insist the crime belongs in someone else s jurisdiction. The French say it s an Irish crime as that s where the money was held. The Irish say it s French as that s where all the correspondence came from. The British say it s nothing to do with them even though forged British passports were used to open the bank account in Spain. And the Spanish are on holiday - and can t even think about investigating any bank account for at least four weeks. So Chris has to solve the crime himself. But unlike fictional detectives he has an 80 year-old mother-in-law and an excitable puppy who insist they come along if he s going anywhere interesting - like a stakeout. REVIEWS This was a fantastic read. It had me laughing so much that I nearly got relegated...
