Excerpt: .image of persecution, did it never occur to you that the foul and midnight hag, who justly bears that name, is never to herself more deliciously occupied than in charging persecution upon others? In those Holy Scriptures, which it is your official duty to read and expound to your companions and brethren of the Royal Arch, it is related, that when your predecessor in the high priesthood, Ananias, commanded that Paul should be smitten on the mouth, the apostle of the gentiles turned upon him and said, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall; for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and com-mandest me to be smitten, contrary to the law? I will not imitate this exclamation of Paul, for which he himself apologized, when informed that it was the high priest to whom he spoke--but I will ask you, sir, to reconsider this charge of persecution, imputed by you, in the face of the world, not indeed to any individual by name, but to a numerous and respectable class of your fellow-citizens in nine or ten States of the Union--to all that class of citizens known in the community by the denomination of Antimasons. I am one of them myself. As respects myself I know, as regards the whole party I firmly believe, that in the above passage of your address, you did them great injustice. In charging them with calumny, you calumniated them yourself. In accusing them of persecution, you...
